

2017 NCMC Emerging Professional Award

The North Carolina Museum's Council may award up to four Professional Service Awards in a given year. With the exception of the Lawson Award, nominees for the NCMC Professional Service Awards must be Individual Members of NCMC, or employees or retirees of an Institutional Member of NCMC. Nominations must be made by an NCMC Individual Member or Institutional Member.

The NCMC Emerging professional Award shall be presented to any individual with less than 5 years of service in the museum field who has distinguished him/herself in the museum field and/or have professionally advanced the role of museums or that of the North Carolina Museum's Council. They committee may grant one Emerging Professional Award each year.

A complete nomination package, including the nomination form and all requested supporting documents and materials as specified below, is required for review and evaluation. Nominations that are incomplete may be returned, requesting missing information, or may be excluded from consideration, depending on the timeframe and other factors.

This year all completed award nomination forms and required support documentation must be submitted electronically to awards@ncmuseums.org by February 10, 2018.

Acceptable formats include .pdf and .jpeg files. Accompanying letters of support, if required, must be sent by the letter-writer directly to awards@ncmuseums.org Please reference the award in the subject of your email, for example 2017 NCMC Emerging Professional Award

NCMC Awards Program

The purpose of the NCMC Awards Program is to recognize, encourage, and promote excellence and professionalism within the museum community and organizations in related fields of interest. Awards focus public attention on the outstanding work across our state in the 2017 calendar year.

Benefits of NCMC Awards Program

NCMC Awards provide a vehicle for promoting North Carolina museums and related institutions through media news releases, membership, and fund-raising campaigns. Award recognition can also reinforce the quality of a museum's initiatives and accomplishments in grant proposals and other documents.

All award recipients will be announced at the NCMC Awards Luncheon during the Annual Conference. Each winner will receive a certificate, letter from NCMC President, recognition on NCMC website and newsletter; and complimentary lunch and recognition at the annual meeting.
